

The Swiss Shooting Sport Federation is seeking to appoint, as of 01/01/2027 or by agreement, a

Junior National Pistol Coach

50–100%

The Swiss Shooting Sport Federation (SSV) is a member of Swiss Olympic and one of the largest sports federations in Switzerland. Founded in 1824, the federation has nearly 60,000 licensed shooters and approximately 130,000 members. The federation includes 26 cantonal shooting federations with over 2,500 clubs. Our shooters participate in national and international, Olympic and non-Olympic competitions in rifle and pistol disciplines.

What you can expect from us:

- Responsibility for training the junior national squad at the national performance centre in Biel
- Supervision and coaching at national and international competitions
- Collaboration with regional performance centre (RLZ) coaches
- Conducting talent scouting as part of the youth development programme
- Contributing to youth development projects
- Flexible allocation of various operational tasks within the pistol division, in collaboration with the Head of the Pistol Division
- Optional role: Management of the Rapid Fire Division (Juniors & Elite)

What we expect from you:

- Strong knowledge of Olympic pistol disciplines, ideally with a focus on rapid fire pistol
- Several years of experience in the elite sports environment (as a former athlete or coach)
- Professional coaching qualification (or recognised international equivalent), or J+S Level A qualification with willingness to complete professional coaching certification
- Strong interpersonal skills in leading and motivating young athletes
- Willingness to work irregular hours and to travel abroad
- Enthusiasm and motivation to achieve success together with athletes and coaches
- Strong personal dedication, team-oriented mindset and 100% commitment to the sport of shooting
- Proficiency in a Swiss national language (written and spoken), good spoken English; additional languages an advantage
- Driving licence category B

What we offer you:

- Exciting and rewarding experiences at national and international competitions in a unique sporting environment
- The opportunity to shape and develop elite sport and youth development in Swiss shooting, and to represent it nationally and internationally
- Professional association structures
- Elite sport and the development of young talent, in line with the latest FTEM guidelines from Swiss Olympic
- Highly motivated squad athletes with strong potential, as well as a competent coaching team
- Various corporate benefits and employee discounts
